ALMA MATER

Ten thousand strong, sing we a song,
Kenmore High to thee
Oh worthy art thou of fame
From near and far, cheering we are for thy victory
Beloved is thy glorious name
Beloved is thy glorious name;
Kenmore High School, Kenmore High School,
Hail to thee, Kenmore High Alma Mater.

Oh Kenmore High forever
Our Alma Mater dear
We praise thee, fairest High School
Thy name we love to hear.
Our team leads us to victory
We cheer the score along
Oh Kenmore High; the best school,
We praise thee in song.

*'60
CARDINAL
DEDICATED TO MISS CORL*

It is with a great deal of pride and pleasure that we dedicate the 1960 Cardinal to Miss Helen Corl.

Miss Corl retired from teaching last year. Although she is no longer on the scene, her spirit and guiding hand will remain.

Friend, confidant, advisor and educator, Miss Corl typifies the best in American womanhood.

History was more than a subject to be taught to her; it represented a challenge, a challenge that she readily accepted. The Future Teachers of America was not an extra-curricular activity to her, it was an opportunity to serve.

May you, Miss Corl, always find happiness. We shall never forget you.

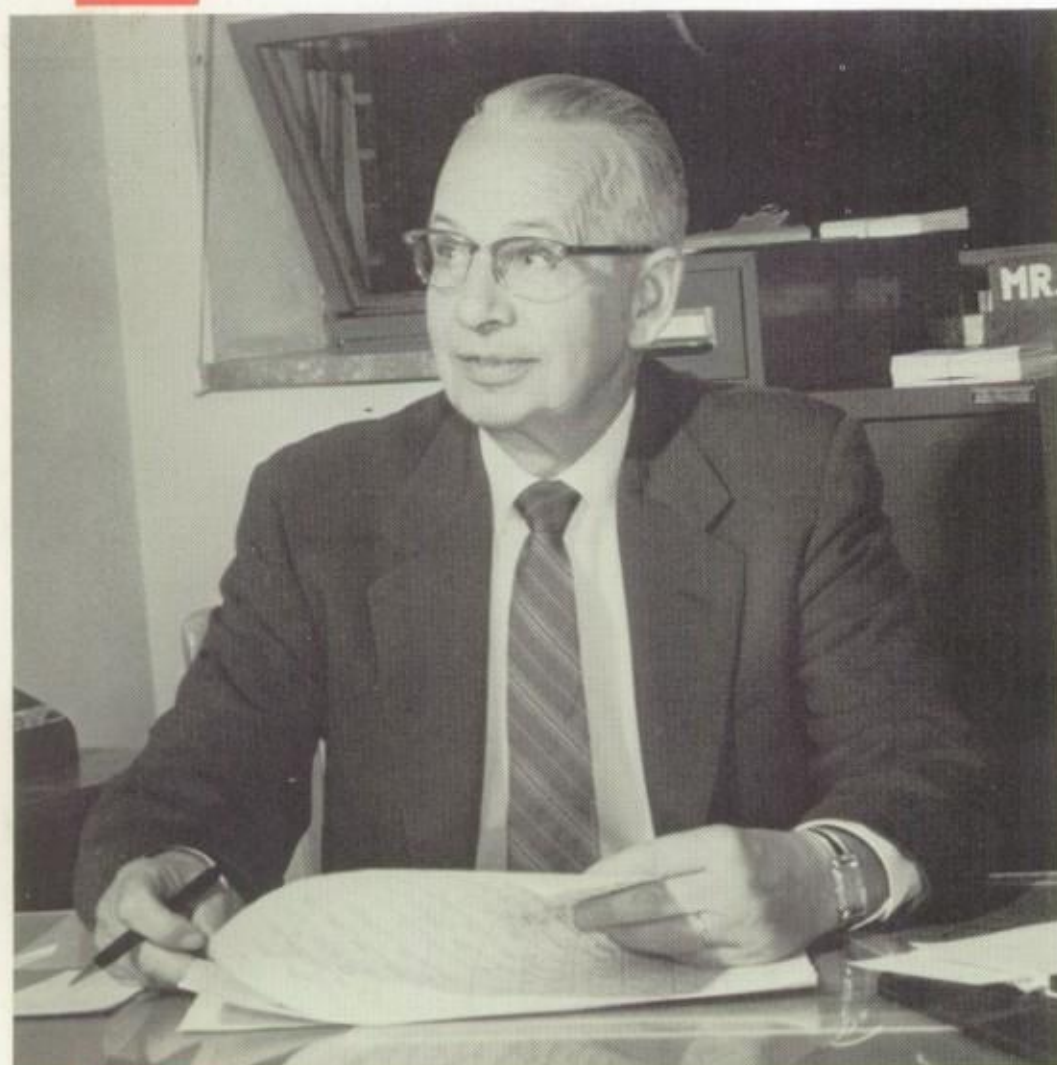

PRINCIPALS

To Members of the Class of 1960:

You are to be congratulated for having successfully completed your high school program. The best of luck and happiness to each of you in the years ahead.

Mardis R. Williams
PRINCIPAL

Congratulations Seniors:

We hope that your four years at Kenmore High School have been not only happy years but also profitable years.

If at any time we can be of further help to you, do not hesitate to call upon us. Your success will give us a great deal of satisfaction and pleasure.

C. T. Monroe
Your Assistant Principal and Advisor

COUNSELORS

Commencement is the beginning of your adult life. We have tried to help you recognize your individual aptitudes and abilities and to explore the many ways in which they can be more fully developed. The zeal with which you push forward in the future will determine your ultimate accomplishment. We hope you will all be "champs."

Boys' Counselor
Mr. H. Daitch

Graduation will find all of you going your different ways.

For some of you this completes your formal schooling. We hope that you have learned to use the tools which we have provided you for everyday living.

For those who are going to further their education, we have tried to teach you to study, to apply learned knowledge and to use the moral stamina which all the teachers have done their best to instill in each of you. We trust that you will be adequately prepared to meet the adult attitudes with which you will be faced in the hard work which lies ahead of you.

Goodbye and good luck to all of you.

Grace Speck
Girls' Counselor

Congratulations Seniors:

For years you have been told of the need for preparing yourself for tomorrow. Now tomorrow has become today.

Charles W. Bryan

MR. ESSEX AND THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

GREETINGS . . .

The future is made by what we do and think now. Your determination and that of millions of youth across this nation to exhaust every educational resource available in preparing yourselves for adult responsibilities may well decide the course of our history.

Our nation needs statesmen, scientists, men and women to staff its professions, to extend its industries, to fill the skilled trades. With more knowledge required each year in every area, educational standards for the individual must continue to rise.

Akron citizens are aware of the growing importance of quality education. A concerted effort has been made to improve instruction and educational facilities. We hope that you and future students will make full use of them.

We are glad for this opportunity to extend greetings to each of you, and to express to the graduating class our best wishes for the years ahead.

GLIMPSE INTO THE FUTURE

Dear Diary,

Well here it is, the year 1970, ten years since the class of 1960 graduated from Kenmore. As everyone seems to be abandoning the earth for other planets, I have decided to write about the class—for the earth records.

I wouldn't have to do this if JOHN KOSTKO hadn't gotten that absurd idea of becoming emperor of the world, with JERRY GUY and KEN GOFFEE supporting him all the way.

Naturally this set off a world war and even the head of the Marine Corps DOYT AKOM and his first lieutenant JIM CALLAHAN couldn't stop them. TONY ALEXANDER wanted to chip in and help the Marines, but he and ROGER BAER were too busy working with SHARLEEN HOUT training their new singing group featuring IRENE PAVKOV, PAT SHAW, THELMA SHREVE, ELLEN THOMPSON, and LINDA WATERS to entertain the new Expresso Beatnik Coffee House.

A few people seem to be sticking to earth music, however, BARBARA JEAN JONES practices her piano lessons daily, while her assistant EUGENE GANGL diligently turns her music.

In the meantime, the war became quite serious and several of the boys were drafted. MIKE CINGEL, ROGER COLE, JAMES DAVENPORT, HAROLD WELLING, and GEORGE WALBECK to name a few. But they couldn't win alone so DOT VIROSTKO immediately formed a cheering squad composed of SUSIE DARR, JANICE CROSS, NANCY DROBLYEN and FRANCIE PRICE, but the guys couldn't seem to keep their minds on the battle.

Just about that time BOB COCHOY discovered a peace plan which caused the people of the world to select MARGIE RICHARDSON and DICK BUTCHER as the rulers of the world, and there was peace for three years.

Everything went smoothly for a while with CHARLES FICKLE plucking chickens in SALLY PEERCY'S chicken plant; JANET BAKER running a reducing salon with MALENE MILLSAP and JUDY DAGUE attending faithfully; and HAROLD BALTER giving skydiving lessons to RUTH HOLMES and GARY MOSS.

This was the social season, too. One of the biggest parties was given by SHEILA McCLEARY, President, and JUDY DENIOUS, Vice President, of the United Nations. The fabulous guest list included: President of the United States—JUNE KORMENDY, Russian Premier—JIM KITCHEN, PAUL GENOVESE—owner of 500 Saudia Arabian oil wells, BARBARA ANN JONES—secretary to PETE MILICH—sole emperor of the Moon (which he bought from HAROLD MANN for $1 an acre), and BILL SNOOKS—present Sultan of Turkey who brought along his harem—MARJORIE LAZOR, PAT SCHLEICHER, DIANE MARR, LINDA FISHER, ELIZABETH KOCH, LODEMA COOPER, and WILMA CONRAD.

The biggest event of the season was when GARY BALLINGER and ED STEWART decided to take a trip to Mars. Their crew included ED HUTCHISON, BOB ILER, JERRY KASSINGER, GEORGIANNA MANCUSO, JIM MOON, CAROLYN DELHOMMER, and DAVE ROBERTS.

Preacher LARRY HUTCHISON and church organist VIRGINIA BALDENSBERGER prayed for both expeditions which safely reached their destination.

These expeditions set off five years of planning the colonization of the planets. PAT OSTERVICH was elected chairman of the move, and with her assistants LINDA ADAMS, JANET CALVERT, and DIANE DERRY sent colonization groups to each planet.

This ended the World Wars but was just a beginning of interplanetary trouble, the most famous battle fought between BOB KOGER and KENNY LEGATS over control of Saturn. But like an angel of peace SALLY GUCKEYSON arrived on the scene settling matters by giving ILLONA BELITSKY and KATHRYN DAILEY complete control of the planet.

The United Nations gave way to the United Planets and BILLIE BROADHURST was elected president. BECKY ESSIG became treasurer but TOM TOBIN and MIKE SOBITZ were constantly raiding the treasury to make repairs on their racing rockets.

BILL WILKINSON and PAMELA WOOD celebrated the first Christmas on Pluto and gave JUDY LAWSON to CHARLES WILEY for a present. JIM TRANTHEM came down to earth for a Christmas tree but returned with WENDY STANDRIDGE so the group dropped popcorn over PAUL WILAND instead.

The Mars settlers had a poor Christmas because JOEL ROSENBAUM wouldn't play Santa Claus, but they had a huge New Year's celebration. MARILYN SMITH dressed as the New Year and PAUL SHELKOF-SKY donned white gown and whiskers as the Old.

A few ambitious people including JOE ZURZOLA and CAROL ABICHT weren't content with the present solar systems and headed beyond the stars for new worlds. JEAN ZEMA and BONNIE PRENTICE are of this group.

By 1968 JERRY PARDUE and BERNICE FERRES had founded the fifth solar system and left BARBARA ARNOLD and DIANE BAHRY in complete control. NANCY HELM and KENNY GAISER started a solar system all their own with DAVE KIRK and SANDY RAY. Robots invented by KENNY RHODES, GEORGE McMULLEN and MICHAEL WITHERUP, left the rich CARL ADAMSON, DICK FORESTER, and JEROME MATTHEWS with nothing to do but spend their money.

FRED NASRALLAH and his secretary PAT NEGRON wrote a book about the ten most famous outer space personalities which included, JUDY PELLE, THOMAS MACK, JOHN WATSON, DONNA SYKES, BETTY SABO, SANDY BLENDENBACHER, LORRETTA CAMPER, and WILLIAM HAUSE, respective leaders of the nine planets of the original solar system and JOHN MILLER supreme ruler.

The book was so successful that LEIGH RAMMEL wrote a followup on each of the other solar system leaders. Probably the most notable persons described in this book were DONALD GARDEN, JERRY KASTER, GLENN LYCANS, MARY NOFFSINGER, JIM SUTTON and ED TIPPEL all ruling planets named after them.

The space age became a reality. DELORIS RODDY and ALLAN ROSPO were designing modern homes which were ideal for living conditions on every planet. BILL PINKLEY and DON SALZWIMMER had built the largest passenger rocket which pilot GARY YOUNG claimed to be the fastest also. MARGARET TOTH, RONALD WEGMILLER, KAREN SWAST, and ROBERT HARDY had advanced the study of science and math to an all time high.

MARY KIRSCHNER, DAVID LIMER and TERRY WRAY were the three most outstanding doctors of the space era. Television was available on every planet due to the technical solutions of BOB SHEARER and JACK TOWNSEND. T. V. personalities were ROSEMARY ZUSCHAK and JOYCE MILLER—famous comedienne, MEG JOLIS, PAT GAY and WILLIAM KNECT—singing stars, and GEORGE KITCHEN and MERRIAM JONES—dramatic performers. Programs were based on space themes. A few of the most popular ones were "Have Rocket, Will Travel," starring MARTY HOFLE, "77 Milky Way," with ROBERT HILL and BOB WILLIAMSON, "The Star Ranger," with DEANNA WILLENER, "Space Cruiser" with DONALD DOUGLAS and "Life With Venus," starring DARLENE BROWN. A few of the specials included "A Night With DOROTHY BRIMHALL," "PAT FISHER Presents;" "To Earth and Back" starring ALBERT GOLDSMITH and "THE JUANITA LOVELACE Show."

Newspapers were not as numerous on the planets as they had been on earth. The Planeteer edited by PAT JOHNSTON and The Sun edited by MARIE FOYS had the largest circulation. Food was taken mostly in capsule form but FRANK SMITH'S Space Club still served old-fashioned steak and chicken dinners. Easter and Christmas became planet wide Holidays, and each year JOBIE SMITH portrayed the Easter rabbit while PAUL PECK played Santa Claus. The new musical sounds were weird chants and high whistles usually done by female vocal groups. The most famous of these groups, the Rockettes, was composed of ANITA RUSSEL, BEVERLY MARSHALL, CHERIE McCUNE, VIVIAN PARDUE and BETTY RIEMENSCHNEIDER, led by CAROL RUGGLES.

After JIM ROSENBERGER had discovered a way of growing earth plant life on the majority of the planets, familiar earth flowers appeared everywhere. CATHERINE SPAHR and RITA WIGINGTON had the loveliest gardens and large groups of tourists came to see them each year. MARGARET WETZEL, BARBARA ALEXANDER, NETTIE BALTIC, BONNIE EDWARDS, ELAINE HUMPHREY, and BILLIE BROWN were hoeing the gardens last summer.

As 1969 drew near to an end five solar systems had been colonized, and a total of 50 planets had inhabitants originally from earth. MARY CHIRICH and JANET SPENCER took a census and KAREN SMOLE compiled a 1969 Almanac with the information. VIRGINIA TOSI and DONNA TIMMS became interested in planet civilization before the colonization and with the help of DONALD HOSIER plan to present their findings in book form.

Only a few stragglers have remained on earth. Among those remaining are JIM BRADCOVICH a forest ranger who prefers the wilds of Canada to those of Mars, DAVID AUSTIN a New York bus driver, ZELDA BARTELL successor to Grandma Moses; MARY ANN CARLISLE, PAT McCARTHY and WANDA JONES nurses in the largest hospital in the U. S.; ELLEN JOSEPH a movie star, restaurant owner KITTIE HOCKENBERRY, author BARBARA HOLLER, and writers LINDA KIRKBRIDE, PAT JOHNSON, and JANE REAGAN.

Active in their respective Churches are JUDITH JONES, ELAINE GREGORY and LORETTA HAYES. SALLY MACE and her assistant JUDY ROBERTSON are doing outstanding missionary work under the direction of MARY PAMER.

LOIS ROBERTS has attained her goal as a certified accountant, with her assistants KATHLEEN PARKS and LAURA RICHARDS. WILLIE PORTWOOD has complete control of the stockmarket although she plans to sell to JIM MYERS. ANN MYERS has attained seven college degrees and JOHN RAYBURN is considering giving her a MRS. degree. LOUISE PARKS is the present U. S. President but wishes to resign her office to Vice President PRISCILLA McCOMBS.

A few of the stragglers are spending a year in Disneyland. ANNETTE FIELD, BEVERLY TRIER, MARLENE SIMON, NORMA SUMNER, and JEAN RANDOLPH were there last week, ALVINA MAYER was their guide.

Last but not least of the earthlings who stayed home are not the famous personalities but common housewives and husbands. This group includes: JANET BUCHANAN, BOB CHORDAR, WANDA EASTERLING, NANCY MIDDLETON, RANDALL MORRIS, BONITA MAIR, GEAN GOFF, ARTHUR RAY, CHARLOTTE COUP, ELIZABETH DURBIN, BOB BEAL, LORRAINE DAILY and CECELIA FRANKS.

These are the members of the class of 1960 which graduated from K. H. S. ten years ago, written just for the records on earth. Maybe ten years from now there will be no one left to keep records. Let's hope this doesn't happen. I'll have to leave now, my rocket is here.

Yours in space,
Diane Soothsayer

CLASS HISTORY

FRISKY FRESHMEN

In "57" Kenmore was the name,
We Frisky Freshmen were with fame;
We cheered each game and victory on,
For good school spirit we had won.
Our own basketball team was just the thing,
With six peppy cheerleaders on the beam.
The Womanhood and Manhood awards, the greatest award given to a Freshie,
Were won by Barb Ann Jones and Ken Goffee.
Exams came with fear of being,
A Freshie again next year,
But to our surprise, we looked for more fun in store,
As being a Sophisticated Sophomore.

JUBILANT JUNIORS

Sweet sixteen and
Well we're finally growing up.
John Kostko was chosen to head our class.
Class jackets and rings were ours to choose,
A hard job it was, but we didn't refuse.
Awards and honors showered many this year;
Treasurers of this and Secretaries of that, and Darlene Brown will be the "60" Head Majorette.
Something new this year,
Homecoming Week filled us all with cheer.
Beautiful floats and the fame of winning the game,
The big dance and Judy Lorenz was the name.
The organ for graduation topped everything.
Time marches on as we must agree,
For we were already looking forward to being the Seniors of 1960.

SOPHISTICATED SOPHOMORES

Finally summer fun came to an end,
And we were back in great K. H. S. again.
Joining various clubs was all the talk,
Which ones and when they were to start.
School work was even harder than before;
With homework piled on galore.
A new football stadium headed the list,
With a grand Dedication Day,
Which we didn't miss.
This was merely the beginning,
Of our great success,
For we won the Football Sportsmanship Trophy
At its best.
Finally Spring rolled around and then came June,
And we realized that the year had ended all too soon.

SERIOUS SENIORS

The best year finally came.
Success and happiness was our aim.
Pete Milich was voted President of our class,
Which he found to be quite a task.
Exchanging pictures was just the thing,
Along with getting our class ring.
"Autumn Leaves" made a beautiful scene,
With Susie Darr as our Homecoming Queen.
Days and weeks surely went fast,
As our great year was ending at last.
Joy filled our hearts as we prepared the Senior Class Play,
And it made us wish we had a motion picture of every single day.
From then on we looked forward with great anticipation,
To the wonderful day of our graduation.

Dear Senior Class of 1960,

It has been more than an honor to be elected president of an exceptionally fine class, and I thank you for it. I also wish to thank everyone for your spirit and co-operation during our last year. You have really made it the best year.

The end of our high school days is here, and we must prepare for a life of our own. We must make our parents, teachers, and friends proud of us. We must repay them for the years spent trying, helping, and teaching.

Some of us will be going to college, some into industry and some will go into the service. A majority of us will never see each other again, some of us will never part. But someday, no matter what happens, we all hope to get together and talk about the good old days, our Alma Mater, teachers and a million other things which seem so unimportant to us now.

Whatever you do, do not ever forget that you represent Kenmore, the best high school in the world, and that you, and only you, can keep it that way. Do not forget that you represent the Class of 1960 and that the people will judge all of us by your deeds. Always do your best . . . second best won't do.

I wish everyone of you all the best luck and happiness this world has to offer and remember: "With God all things are possible."

Sincerely yours

Pete Milich
Senior Class President

IN APPRECIATION

We trust that you will find pleasure and joy in the 1960 Cardinal.

The arduous task of pictorially presenting the complexion of Kenmore Junior-Senior High School was made a pleasure through the cooperation of many dedicated individuals.

Mr. Friedman, our advisor, was untiring in his efforts. We are pleased to acknowledge the aid and assistance of Messrs. Don Leahy, M. R. Williams, C. T. Monroe, and the M. O'Neil Company's Messrs. Fitzgerald and Rowh.

Assistant editor Pam Cook was always willing to help. She also served as sports editor, and with the assistance of Larry Dooley, did an excellent job covering the scene at Kenmore.

Business manager Becky Essig did a most efficient job handling the advertising and patrons' pages. With the able assistance of Jim Armour, they made this yearbook possible.

Feature editor Margie Richardson did an outstanding job. Her work was made easier by the splendid cooperation she received from Nancy King.

No book is complete without a faculty section. Harold Mann and his assistant, Bonnie Rucker, handled this job excellently.

Pat Landis and Peggy May did a fine job of taking over the underclassmen section which was begun by Lois Roberts.

Judy Robertson, activities editor, deserves a great deal of credit for her work. Barb Kirkendall ably assisted her.

Our fine art work was done by Ron Perv. Typist Nancy Droblyen did a splendid job and was capably assisted by Marguerite Prehoda.

David Hine and his assistant, John Payne, did a fine job of portraying life at Kenmore with their cameras.

There are others, unmentioned, that helped to make this yearbook possible and to all we extend our sincere thanks.

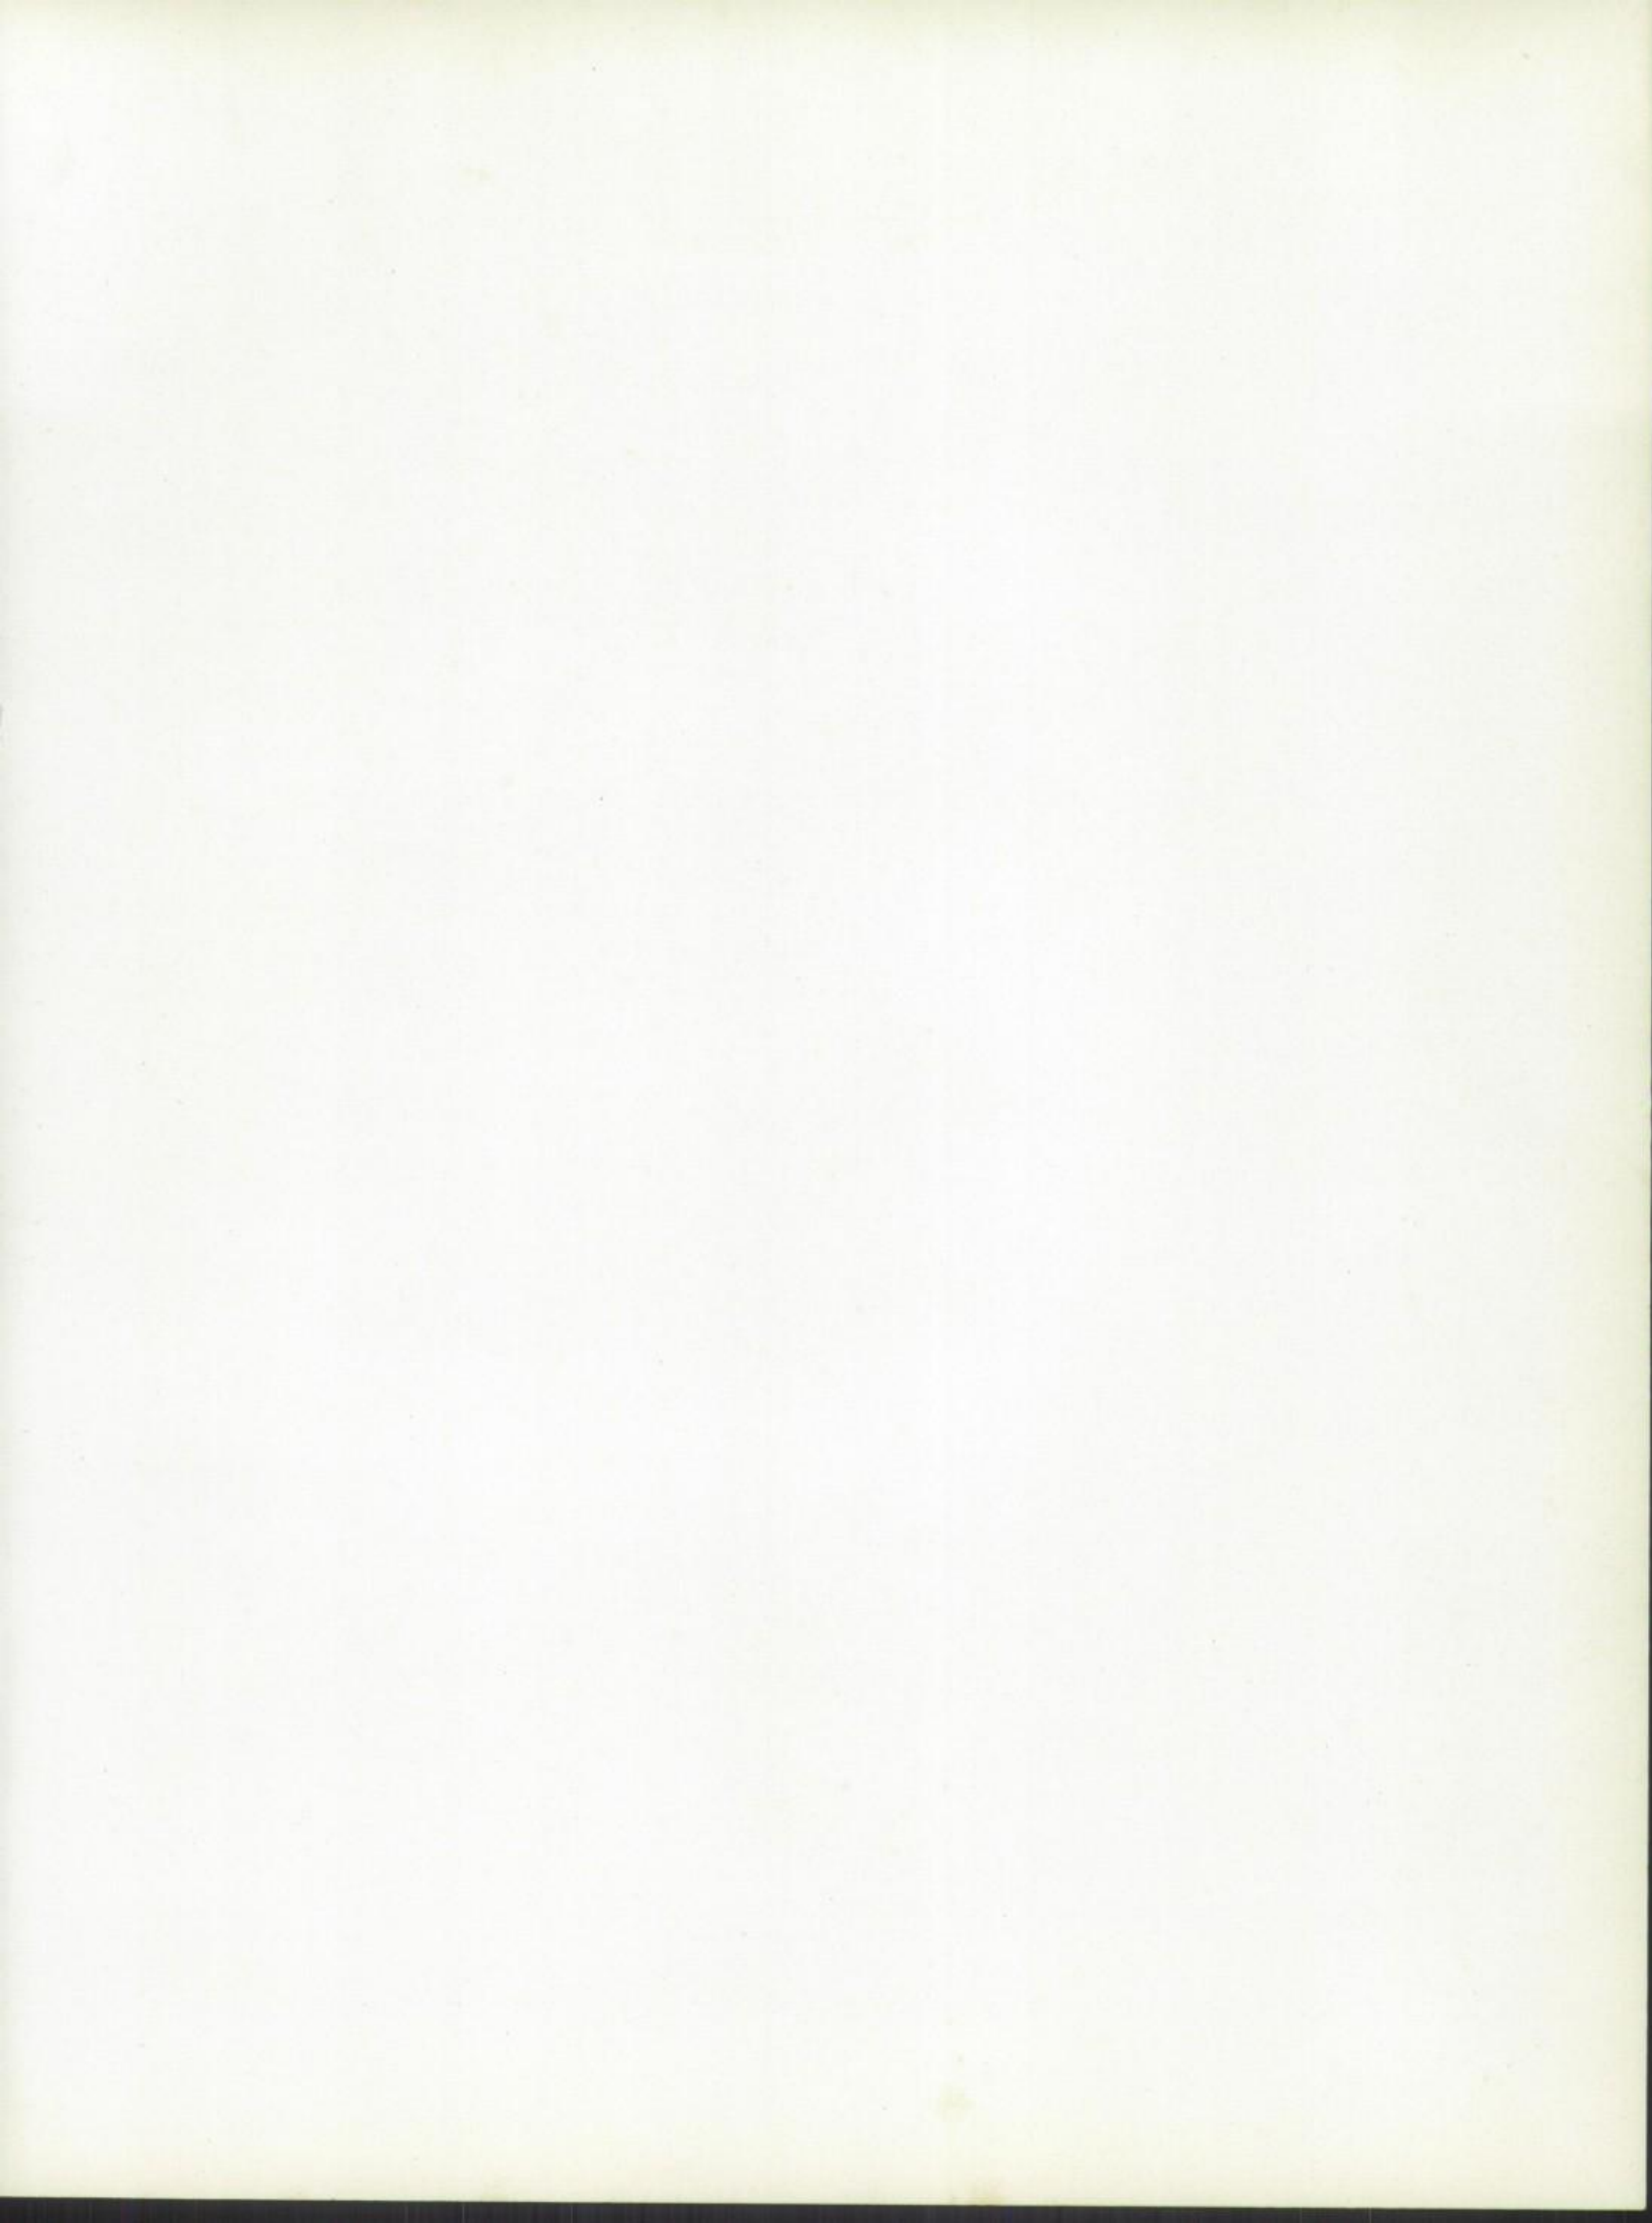

May God in His infinite glory grant each one of you success, happiness, and peace.
